

The Getaway Loop (Moderate) 38 Miles

Short, steep hills add variety to this ride. Some of the loop traces the getaway route of the 1931 Kraft State Bank robbery. As the robbers drove, they threw handfuls of flat-head nails to slow those in pursuit. The two who got away were later caught in Kansas City, Missouri and sent back to Leavenworth Prison. For additional information contact the Dunn County Historical Society. Services are available in Boyceville, Downing, Knapp and Wheeler.